CONNECT 2025 THE FUTURE OF HEALTH AND WELLNESS TODAY

The pace of change across all areas of our lives is incredible and none is more dynamic than in the area of Health and Wellness. As Brand Builders, we are constantly running to catch up with changes, risking being reactive, tactical and not always in the best interest of our Brands and Communities.

CONNECT 2025 is an opportunity for like-minded, forward-thinking and proactive, present and future, leaders to step back from the chaos of today, see into the future and apply the learnings to their Brands and Businesses today.

Designed as if in 2025, thought leaders from across different industries; insurance, health care providers, aggregators, knowledge platforms, consumer health care brand owners will share their foresight for the reality of the world in 2025.

We will then be empowered with tips, tools and techniques for making the future of 2025 live in our businesses today.
